

Dakotas Suzuki Institute

The 2009 Dakotas Suzuki Institute offers concentrated Suzuki music instruction for musicians of all ages. Join the fun at Bismarck State College in renewing and expanding your music spirit. Institute is for current and beginning Suzuki music students. Each participant will receive a master class, repertoire or group class, theory class, and two enrichment classes, as well as two concerts each day, ending with a final student recital on Thursday evening. Parent education classes are offered each day while students have a supervised recreation period. Also offered is Early Childhood Education for little ones from infant to 5 years old to capture the love of music that is a natural gift of all children.

Faculty

Colleen Lively - Violin/Viola

Colleen Lively began playing violin in her school string program in Mississippi. She has been on the teaching staff at University of Southern Mississippi Orchestra Camp, All-State Orchestra, Tupelo Youth Symphony, Cadek Conservatory in Chattanooga, Jackson Public Schools and Greater Jackson Suzuki Strings in Mississippi. Colleen has played in the Illinois Valley Symphony Orchestra and currently plays with the Minot Symphony Orchestra. Colleen teaches Suzuki Violin lessons, piano lessons, and works as an aid in a local school.
